Dear Sir,

I had objected to the Debtor's Motion in the VEBA matter and appeared at the hearing on November 16th 2011, before the Honorable Judge James M. Peck. The day prior I had received the Agenda of the Hearing and it listed the Motion and delineated several Objections (Items A to O)in addition to mine. Three of the Objections had docket numbers and I was able to copy them from the Docket. However, neither mine nor any of the other objections listed in the Agenda (items D to O) were assigned docket numbers. I was not able to review them before the hearing and have not seen them listed yet. Judge Peck indicated that he had reviewed all of the Objections and I assume the two referenced counsel got copies.

I can see from the docket page on the website that you must deal with an incredibly large number of Affidavits/Certificates of Service and Claim Transfer Forms, and I must apologize for not knowing the rules governing the assignment of docket numbers. I do not know if some objectors have requested confidentiality, but if permitted, is it possible for me to get copies of the filed objections which do not have assigned Docket Numbers.

Thank you very much.

Steven G. Delaney
